To the Electors of the Yale, Lytton and Kootenay District.

GENTLEMEN,—Having a sincere desire to see these districts, this Province, and the whole Dominion prosper, I wish to give a helping hand to those patriots who labor for the moral and material wellbeing of our people.

I therefore offer myself as a candidate to represent you in the Ottawa House of Commons.

If I am elected I will strive to uphold the honor, peace and safety of the people, encourage our prosperity, and develop our resources.

I will vigorously uphold all measures tending to our good; and with like vigor, oppose all derogatory to the good of our country and people.

I promise to be ever ready to represent the petitions of my constituents, when right and reasonable; and intend when practicable, consulting them upon the wants &c. of these districts.

It is for you gentlemen to say whether I shall be your representative.

If you have made, or likely to make a better choice, I will not oppose your man, but will assist in electing him.

Your servant
ALEX. L. FORTUNE.

DR. CHING FUN—A CARD—EDITOR STANDARD:—Through the medium of your paper I want to state the very great good that has been done me by Dr. Ching Fun of this city, next door Kwong Lee & Co. For 24 years I suffered with neuralgia on the brain, which baffled the skull of three first-class American physicians. Latterly bronchitis attacked my right lung, and my eyes became painfully inflamed. Despairing of ever being cured I proceed myself as a last resort in the hands of Dr. Ching Fun, and after five months treatment I am a well man and feel that I cannot sound the eminent Chinese gentleman's praises too loudly, so that all my countrymen similarly affected may visit and find relief. Representation by Population.

For many years prior to the Union of the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec with New Brunswick and Nova Scotia as the charter Provinces in the British American Confederation, there was an incessant warfare kept up between Ontario and Quebec on the question of the relative representation of the two sections in the united Legislature. When the union was effected between Upper and Lower Canada in 1840, the respective populations were about equal in numbers, and consequently the legislative representation was made numerically the same, without any provision being made in the Act of Union for an increase in the number of representatives in the event of one Province in the course of time outstripping the other in respect of population. A few years sufficed after union to put Upper Canada largely ahead of Lower Canada in population, and the increase of her manufactures and commerce were even greater than her relative increase in numbers, which entitled upon Upper Canada an increase in the amount of her contributions to the Provincial treasury as compared with Lower Canada, while the latter not only managed to carry off the lion's share of the monies appropriated for public improvements, but successfully denied to the former any increase in the number of her representatives, although she exceeded Lower Canada in population by upwards of 400,000. As might be expected, this state of affairs engendered a feeling anything but fraternal between the two sections of the country, and had the difficulty not found a solution in Confederation and a re-adjustment of the representation on the basis of population, it might have resulted in very serious consequences. Population, then, having been made the basis of representation as between the four Provinces included in original scheme of Confederation, the Grits, in the election campaign which has just been brought to a conclusion, did their utmost to prejudice the public mind against the Macdonald Administration on the ground of having violated the spirit as well as the letter of the Constitution by Granting to British Columbia, as one of the conditions upon which she should enter the Confederacy, the right to be represented in the House of Commons by six members. According to the terms of the Constitution, the representation of Quebec was fixed permanently at sixty five members, and each of the other Provinces should be entitled to send one member to the Commons for every 18,000 of their respective populations, to be determined every ten years by taking the census. Such being the agreement entered into between the four Provinces, the Grits contended that British Columbia was entitled to one member only, and that to give her six seats in the Commons was not only a wrong done to the other Provinces, but was an "outrageous violation of the Constitution." The Grits seem to forget that it always takes at least two to make a bargain, and that however well the arrangement between the four Provinces suited their purposes and local interests, it would not be acceptable to British Columbia, and that if this Province were to enter the Dominion at all, it would be upon such terms and conditions as its representatives empowered to act on its behalf should determine to be most advantageous to its interests. We admit that the abstract principle of representation on the basis of population is a correct one; but there are other considerations entitled to weight in negotiating the terms of a union between two or more independent Provinces than that of population, and those considerations were very properly urged by the Delegates from British Columbia and admitted by the Executive authorities of the Dominion. Our Delegates claimed that territory, as well as population, should be represented in the Commons, and that claim was admitted; it was also urged that inasmuch as British Columbia would be required to surrender her customs revenue upon entering the Dominion, the value of that revenue should be taken into account in negotiating the terms of union. Our Delegates therefore claimed a representation of six members from this Province on the basis of Revenue. British Columbia, upon entering the Confederation, surrendered a revenue of $850,000 to the Dominion Government, which was the largest revenue ever collected in any one Province of the Dominion, being equivalent to a revenue from 120,000 people in any Eastern Province, or, as a contemporary puts it, "if it be possible to render the statement in plainer terms, British Columbia, with a white population of 12,000, contributes a revenue to the general Government equal to a revenue that would be collected from ten times the population in any of the Eastern Provinces." Gov. Musgrave, in his dispatch to the Governor General of Canada, under date 20th February, 1870, says: "The characteristics of this colony are so unlike those of the Eastern Provinces that it is necessary to adjust the proposed arrangements upon a basis different from that adopted in their cases. The true number of the population is not known, and it includes a large number of Indians, who are, to a great extent consumers. The production of the colony is very small, except of gold. The consequence is, a large importation of duty paying goods, yielding a revenue from customs far greater in proportion to our estimated population than that obtained from customs' duties for the same number in any part of the Dominion. It is proposed therefore, that for the purpose of an arrangement with Canada, our population should be estimated from the amount of revenue contributed to the general fund of the Dominion from the sources which would be transferred. On a moderate computation, the Customs and Excise duties are estimated for this year at $850,000. This sum is more than is raised from 120,000 of the population of Canada, the rate there being, as I am informed, $2 75 per head. British Columbia claims accordingly to come into the Union with the privileges, as she relinquishes the revenue, of 120,000 of the population of the Dominion. This point being conceded, the rest of the financial arrangement proceeds upon the same principles which have been admitted and acted upon in the cases of the eastern provinces. And upon due consideration I do not think the plan proposed will be found to be unfair." In addition to the above we contend that our geographical position entitles us to the full measure of representation we have received. Without an outlet on the Pacific the Dominion of Canada never could become a great maritime power, but with it she has a guarantee of one day being among the foremost of the commercial and maritime nations of the earth. British Columbia is the keystone in the arch of Confederation, and all this blow and bluster about political outrage and trampling upon the constitution is only looked upon by intelligent and thoughtful men as so much party claptrap, designed by knaves to catch a fools. We question if political parties changed places to-morrow, if the Grits would not carry out precisely the same policy toward this Province that they have so strongly condemned the Administration of Sir John A. Macdonald for agreeing to.

[Before A. F. Pemberton, Esq.]

THE PLUMPER PASS MURDER.

THURSDAY, Sept. 12, 1872.

This case was resumed yesterday. The first witness was the Indian boy who was in the canoe with the witness who was examined on Wednesday; he stated that at the commencement of the warm weather, he did not know how many months ago, he saw Brown jump out of his own boat into the boat of another man which was close to his, and push him down; Brown had a small axe and struck the other man with it; Brown then looked round and saw witness, and called him a bad name; Klausestem was with me (said witness) in the canoe; Brown also said, Siwashes, I will kill you; before he threw the man overboard, he called us to go into his boat; the two boats were close together, and Brown jumped from Johnson's boat into his own, which was close to our canoe; threw some money into the canoe and told us to go away. We went a little way off, and the prisoner took a piece of rope and fastened a piece of iron to it, tied it round the deceased's neck and threw him overboard; he then tied the two boats together and sailed away; we then went ashore. After the boats had gone a long way off, we counted the money and found $7.

Herman Johnson, brother of the deceased, made a correction in the evidence which he gave on the 3rd inst., to the effect that it was on the morning of March 14th that Brown returned home, not on the evening of the 13th.

Henry Georgeson examined:—On the morning of March the 14th, John Brown came to the door of my house at Plumper's Pass, and called me; I asked him what was up; he told me that John Johnson was drowned; I asked him how it happened; he answered that he was drunk, and had been knocked overboard by the boom of his boat; he wished me to go with him in the boat to the brother's house, to tell him the news; I went with him and told his brother.

This closed the case, and Mr. Courtney reserved his defence. The prisoner was committed for trial.

Notes from the Sound.

The Territorial Teachers' Association is in session this week at Olympia, under the supervision of the Rev. Dr. Rounds. The new telegraph line is completed from Port Townsend to Ludlow, and will be through to Port Blakely in two weeks, and a month later to Seattle.

The Ludlow mills are to begin running at night again, next week. Tacoma mills, too, will do the same as soon as they get a night crew. Help is still scarce on the Sound, and wages very high.

There seems to be a bright prospect for landowners at and around Port Townsend; of late several lots have changed hands at good figures.

The track on the North Pacific Railroad on Wednesday, was laid to a point three miles this side of Pumphrey's, and is to be put down at the rate of two miles per day.

The tri-weekly mail service between Port Townsend and Olympia, by Capt Starr & Co.'s line, affords a fine opportunity for travellers on the Sound to visit all the ports, on short time. The completion of the railroad to Hodgkinson's station, 15 miles from Olympia, will affect travel and trade as well between this city and Sound port.

Considerable quantities of land have changed hands at Tacoma lately, in both large and small lots, and at increased rates.

GUN ACCIDENT.—A very serious accident occurred to Mr. Edward Cavanagh, on Wednesday, while on his way to Victoria from Saturna Island in a canoe, in company with Mr. Isaac Tod; when near Stewart Island seeing a bird he stooped to get his gun which was lying in the bottom of the canoe and while in the act of drawing it towards him the trigger caught a piece of wood and the gun went off, the whole charge of buckshot entering his right thigh, and also blowing off the top of one of his fingers. Mr. Tod brought the canoe into Oak Bay and sent for Dr. Trimble, who had the sufferer removed to the Royal Hospital.

FROM NANAIMO.—The steamer Sir James Douglas arrived from Nanaimo direct yesterday afternoon. She finished the mooring of the Fraser River buoys on Wednesday morning; towed the scow up to New Westminster, and then ran over to Nanaimo for coal. At Nanaimo the only vessel loading was the California for Portland. She would be ready and leave this morning. The following passengers came down: Surveyor General Pearse, J. Pawson, and Mrs. Scales and son.

CHANGE OF LOCATION.—The Cemetery Board having received a desirable offer from Mr. Burnaby of property at Ross Bay, for the new Cemetery site, have accepted the offer. The Trust will be decidedly benefitted by the arrangement, as the land purchased can be fitted for use as a Cemetery at infinitely less cost than Medana's Grove. The Board are fortunate in having secured such a very desirable location. Tenders for the work will be called for in a day or two.

FROM THE EAST COAST.—The steamer Maude arrived at 7 o'clock last evening from Nanaimo and way ports, with the undermentioned passengers and a small freight of produce. The H. B. Co.'s steamer Otter arrived at Nanaimo from the North yesterday morning at 6 o'clock, and was coaling when the Maude left. Passengers—Messrs. W. K. Bull, G. Hudson, Harrison, Parsons, Kirk, White, Mitchell, King, and Miss Antoine.

SUDDEN DEATH.—"Alick" Young, a well known citizen of Victoria, died suddenly yesterday afternoon. He has been ailing for some time, but was able to move around, and the day before his death was in town. Poor Alick was a favorite with all who knew him, and was a fifty-eighter. He leaves a wife to mourn him. Funeral notice in another column.

COMOX.—Surveyor General Pearse arrived from Comox yesterday by the steamer Douglas. He reports the new roads nearly finished, and that the work is done in a first class manner. The supplies for Michaud's survey party have been forwarded from Comox.

FOR THE MAINLAND.—The Enterprise will leave for New Westminster at 10 o'clock this morning.

Washington Territory.

It is reported that Directors and parties connected with the N. P. Railway will arrive in Portland on the 18th, and come through to the Sound, when it is expected that some definite action will be taken in the location of a terminus. Bellingham Bay with its large harbor has been long talked of as the point, and it has much in its favor; but the place most to be feared by Seattle (writes the Dispatch of that place) is Whidby Island, where parties connected with the Railroad Company have purchased some 26,000 acres of land. This island probably has the best harbor on the Sound; is nearer the Straits, but otherwise has many objectionable points.

Col. Janes, U. S. A., and wife, with C. H. Armstrong, Chief Clerk, have arrived at Port Townsend. The Colonel is estimating the cost of repairs and making arrangements for putting Fort Townsend in order for the reception of a full company of Infantry. The troops are to be removed from San Juan and that post abandoned. The post at Fort Townsend is to be made permanent and put in military order.

On Sunday night last, near to Seattle, a Russian was stopped by two men, James Donohue and Michael Sullivan, and robbed of some money and a silver watch. The men were arrested and await the action of the Grand Jury.

FROM THE SOUND.—The North Pacific arrived at 3 p. m. yesterday with a mail and the following passengers: Ruth, wife and 2 children, Scott, wife and 3 children, Murray, McIntosh, Smith, Thorndike and wife, Rothschild, Webster, Conner, Col. Janes and wife, Mrs Storey and children, Dr. Phillips, Fraeunthal, McCrackin, Foster, Nicolas, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Mr. Langley, Mrs. Monastes, De Main, Mills, 7 Indians, 9 Chinamen.

TICKET OF LEAVE.—The sentence of death recorded against the men Simon Johnson, Sebassa, Meeshak, and Thraket, for piratically killing four white men near Barclay Sound 10 years ago, by the Hon the Chief Justice and the Hon. Mr Justice Crease at the last Assizes, have been commuted by the Governor-General in Council to five years servitude, under a ticket of leave to be passed at Methlakahtla until otherwise ordered.

LECTURE ON AUSTRALIA.—Mr. Bull's lecture on this subject was delivered at Nanaimo on Wednesday evening, and secured for him an attentive audience, who testified their approbation by frequent expressions of applause. The number of those present was somewhat more than generally attend upon such occasions.

THE buoy off Hospital Point, which we mentioned some weeks ago as being submerged, has not as yet been replaced. Captain Sholl of the Prince Alfred had to moor a buoy himself on the spot yesterday to guide him in taking his vessel out.

FIRE.—The fire alarm last evening was caused by brush burning in a vacant lot near Mr. Medana's house, James Bay; the engines reached the Government buildings before learning that it was a false alarm.

TREASURE shipment per Prince Alfred:—Bank of British Columbia, $21 186 24; Bank of British North America, $38,912 59; Wells, Fargo & Co., $11.563 00; total, $71,661 83.

ACCIDENT.—One of the sailors of the steamer Prince Alfred fell down the fore hatchway yesterday, and broke several of his ribs. He was taken to the Royal Hospital.

FOR THE INLET.—The steamer Grappler left for Burrard Inlet yesterday morning. She will take a cargo of lumber from the Hastings mill to Nanaimo for the Coal Co.

THE DIOCESAN CHURCH SOCIETY.—Sermons in aid of the Society will be preached by the Bishop of Columbia, at Christ Church on Sunday next—morning and evening.

RELIGIOUS.—Rev. Mr. Pollard will preach on Sunday evening next; subject, the immortality of the soul. It will be especially addressed to the young.

FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The mail steamer Prince Alfred sailed at one o'clock yesterday for San Francisco with forty-three passengers, the mails, etc.

THE North Pacific, outside the harbor yesterday, transferred fourteen passengers to the Prince Alfred.

The Yale-Kootenay Election.

EDITOR STANDARD:—There are now two candidates in the field for Ottawa, Messrs. Smith and Dewdney, Robinson having withdrawn.

Mr. Smith is a member of the Provincial Parliament of B. C., and Mr. Dewdney a surveyor at present in the employ of the Federal Government, and working on the line between Tete Juane Cache and the seaboard of this Province. Now the pretended friends of the Macdonald Administration must consider they are like Milton's Hypocrite, and walk the earth unseen, when they, in the broad daylight, pick upon an employee of the Federal Government as a candidate to oppose Bob Smith, who is one of the strongest supporters of that government. The people are not so easily played upon now as heretofore. We must confess that for any Federal employee to take up arms and contest the field against a true friend and supporter of that government, is certainly something we did not expect, nor were we aware of before the parties were nominated.

If British Columbia came to the rescue, and secured Sir Francis Hincks a seat, there is no reason why every subordinate officer on the Railroad Survey should be accommodated; it looks so much like "piling on the agony."

LAST NIGHT'S DESPATCHES.

EUROPE.

GENEVA, Sept. 9—The amount of damages awarded to the United States by the Board of Arbitration will exceed three million sterling only by a few thousand pounds. The sitting of the Board to-day was brief, a few matters of detail only engaging the attention of the Board. The closing session will be on Saturday next and will be open to the public; arbitrators agents, counsel and secretaries will be present. Ladies have been invited to attend the arbitration, and others connected with the Board will leave Geneva to-morrow by special train for Berne, where they will be the guests of the Government. The party will lunch at Interlachen on Thursday morning, and dine with the President of the Federal Council of Switzerland at Berne in the evening.

PARIS, Sept. 9—Orders have been issued stopping work on the military defences near Mont Cenis Tunnel.

BERLIN, Sept. 11—The Emperor William has made the Emperor of Austria an honorary Colonel of Hussars, and the sons of the Prince Imperial of Germany have been appointed to Colonelcies in the Russian army.

The meeting of Emperors is drawing to a close; the Emperor of Austria paid a favorable visit to-day to the Czar at the Russian Embassy.

MADRID, Sept. 11—A land slide occurred near Fraga, a town on the banks of the river Cinca, which was filled with earth and rocks. The water was forced from its course and the country around the town inundated. A bridge at that place was carried away. A barge with forty men, women and children taken from the flooded houses swamped and all drowned except three; many other lives are lost. Damage to property is very great.

GENEVA, Sept. 11—The gentlemen connected with the Board of Arbitration have gone to Berne.

LONDON, Sept. 11—The St. Leger was won by Prince Charles; Vanderdreker second.

A Lisbon dispatch reports the loss of the English ship Beta; no details.

PARIS, Sept. 11—Eleven of the Carbonne rioters were convicted and sentenced to terms of imprisonment from four to fifteen months, and fined 200 to 500 francs.

At the reassembly of the National Assembly, Thiers will propose the creation of the office of Vice President.

EASTERN STATES.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11—Pere Hyacinthe's letter concerning and defending his recent marriage, and which he published in the French papers, declares it the farthest from his intention to renounce his high calling. He claims with many arguments to show the justness of his claims; that marriage and the priesthood are by no means antagonistic, that his step has not been understood or hasty.

ST LOUIS, Sept. 9—Two freight and cattle trains on the Missouri Railroad collided 30 miles from here this morning; both engines are ruined; four cattle cars broken; forty head of cattle killed, and two cars of merchandise smashed. Loss, $25,000; the cause is the breaking of the time table.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9—Detective Farley arrived here this morning to take Billy Forester the alleged Nathan murderer to New York. To guard against any attempt at rescue by Forester's friends, he was heavily ironed hand and feet, and placed aboard a special. Farley when asked what connection Forester had with the Nathan murder, said he would not give three cents for his neck if he got him to New York.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9—Billy Forester, the alleged Nathan murderer, arrived from Washington this evening and was taken to prison.

AUGUSTA, Me, Sept. 10—The Journal contains the following: 245 towns heard from gave a total vote of 97,454; the total of these towns last year was 81.184, an increase of 16,270; Parsons has 55.763, and Kimball 43,910; Parsons majority in 1870 was 98. Fifty two towns to hear from.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11—The Pacific Mail Steamship Company have received a special telegram confirming the loss of the America at Yokohama. Part of the cargo was saved and the specie will be recovered by divers.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11—The Department of State is in receipt of dispatches from Geneva, but declines to make its contents known in advance of the formal announcement. There is reason to believe from other sources the amount of the award is $15,-000,000. No official advices are received in regard to the sum.

The President arrived unexpectedly this morning and received visits from several heads of department.

The President is reported to have said since the Maine election, that he is more than ever satisfied with the political situation; he also expressed satisfaction at the results as far as known of the Arbitration at Geneva, not as much on account of the pecuniary features, as the settlement of principles involved; their adjustment by the representatives of foreign governments in their own interests, and those of peace as seen by cable dispatches. Some portion of the British press were dissatisfied this affords ground for congratulation at our success, and believe that the arbitration was conducted according to justice and law and free from bias or prejudice.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 11—The city is crowded with visitors to the Peace Reunion; trains this morning brought in hundreds, among them are L. D. Campbell of Ohio, ex Governor Vance of North Carolina, and other prominent men. Gentlemen from all sections of the country are pouring in. The Committee conducts invited guests to the steamers which convey them to the grounds about two miles above the city. About 35,000 persons were on the grounds this morning; stands are erected in favorable places for speakers. An immense barbecue has been prepared, thirty bullocks, a hundred and fifty sheep and fifty hogs will be barbocued; fifty cooks are employed to prepare the food and 1000 waiters to attend the crowd on the grounds. The crowd, however, is not so large as anticipated. The efforts made to get Greely to come have failed.

The Libary Gift Concert occurs on the 28th; the sale of tickets yesterday amounted to $20,000.

CINCINNATTI, Sept. 11—The exhibition was visited by 20,000 persons to-day. Beck and Fitzgerald have gone to invite Grant and Greeley to come.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11—A new City Hall lot sold this year has since been resold by the purchaser at a sacrifice of $5,000 on the original cost, he not being able to make the second payment.

A Mexican printer states that Melley and Deardorff hired him to go to Oakland and hire another Mexican for a thousand dollars to murder Shay; rob him, and cut off one of his ears as a proof of his committing the murder. He showed a pistol which he says was given him to be used in the commission of the murder, and claims they paid him $50 in advance. Deardorf has not yet been arrested, but the police are hunting for him.

The Secretary of the Treasury has remitted the ten per cent. descrimination duty on goods imported in Japanese vessels, in the case of the ship Fu Jumara which arrived last week.

Six hundred and eighty persons examined in the Fair case and only one juror is yet obtained. It is understood the case will go before the Grand Jury. It is believed generally among the lawyers that it will be found impossible to obtain a jury in the Fair case at this term, and that she will not renew the motion for change of venue, but at the next term demand an immediate trial or release; that the District Attorney will then declare himself unable to go into a new trial immediately, and the act of the Legislature will then be called for to give a change of venue on behalf of the people.

Flour—Prices coutinue steady under the hardening tendency for wheat; local millers are asking 5 50for jobbing lots of family extra, with discount offer for round lots for export. Interior and Oregon brands of extra range from $5 57 to $5 75, and samples from $5 to $5 50 per barrel.

Wheat—Eight full cargoes have been dispatched during the week; receipts exceed exports by 6 000 centals. Eighteen vessels are listed for wheat, one-third of the number are loaded, one-third are loading, and the remainder have not yet discharged their inward cargoes. The market is strong, and notwithstanding the high freights shippers are paying from $1 60 to $1 62 for fair to prime. Rejected lots range from $1 45 to $1 50. Millers find a difficulty in securing desirable lots on as favorable terms as shippers, though the average rates paid by them are probably no higher.

Oats—inferior light descriptions $1 50@$1 60; good to choice feed $1 55@165

Wool—spring clip is still nominal at 20@30 cents; fall clip 11@18 cents. The sales aggregate 25,000 pounds spring, and 50,000 fall.

Hides—$15 38 California dry; usual selections 17 to 17½ cents; choice, 18 cents; 1867 salted, 8@9 cents per pound.

Tallow—quiet at 8@8½ cents.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 11—A five ounce nugget was found in San Bruno Canyon yesterday; other specimens of coarse gold were exhibited from the mines.

Arrivals from Prescott, Arizona, report the first party for the diamond fields is fitted out.

This afternoon the feet of a man were seen projecting from under a small frame house, corner King and Seventh streets. On investigation it was found to be a stranger who had crawled under the building and cut his throat with a pocket knife.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 12—George L. Cannon, editor Deseret News; George A. Smith, A. M. Musser, and Wilford Woodruff, prominent Mormons, arrived from Salt Lake last evening.

A rumor, probably sensational, is published to the effect that Geo. Woodruff, a dishwasher in a California restaurant, has fallen heir, by the death of his uncle in New York, to a fortune of six millions.

Pixley and Barstow addressed a large meeting of the Workingmen's Club in favor of Greeley and Brown, at Dashaway Hall.

The steamer Olympia, from Honolulu, with passengers and mails, is just coming up the harbor.

Advices per Olympia are meagre. The British ship Ketih Ino arrived at Honolulu from the Navigator Islands. The U. S. steamer Resacca left on the 27th for the Fiji Islands.

In the matter of the importation of goods direct from New York overland to San Francisco, thence to Honolulu, there is complaint among foreign importers who claim that cost of the transportation to San Francisco would be added to the original cost in assessments of duties.

The Whaler Jones, of Bedford, touched at Jarvis Island on her cruise west, with 3000 barrels of oil.

A vessel arrived at Honolulu, having visited the wreck of the German brig Wanderer, from San Francisco. She lies on Averackka Reef, and found the vessel nearly broken up. There was a boat on the island, but no signs of life.

What are the School Trustees for Victoria City Doing?

EDITOR STANDARD:—Yesterday I visited the girls school in Broughton street and found 156 pupils engaged in the study of various branches of learning, and presided over by the Principal Mrs. Hayward, and Miss Baxter, the Vice-Principal. The children looked clean, happy and neatly dressed; the teachers also seemed to wear a cheerful countenance under the circumstances. But just imagine 156 pupils, and only two teachers; there must be great and unpardonable dereliction of duty on the part of the School Trustees to suffer this state of things to continue for a week or even one day here at the capital, when relief can be obtained at once by employing a sufficient number of teachers to do the work. Why then is this most important duty not attended to at once, by providing another school room and relieving the Broughton street school of at least 50 children, besides appointing another Assistant to aid in imparting instruction efficiently to the remaining 106 pupils; otherwise how can the spirit of the School Act be complied with? One hundred pupils in a school will give active employment to three thoroughly qualified teachers. Surely the Lieutenant-Governor in Council would not attempt to deny the School Trustees the means of employing a proper number of teachers with a view of raising the standard of education among the growing population of this city, inasmuch as they have so generously given employment to a number of Bench Clerks throughout the Province at large; salaries and nothing to do, except it be to look out for the bench marks on the railway survey. Where is the Superintendent of Education? It may be said of him, that he is a good walking Superintendent; he leaves the school in Victoria crowded to suffocation with pupils, and half the requisite number of teachers, whilst he goes to the Mainland to regulate matters there.

In the afternoon I visited the boys school at the head of Fort street and found 106 boys in attendance, presided over by Mr. McKenzie, B. A, and his Assistant Mr. Mundell. The boys looked cheerful, healthy and clean, but in order that justice should be done them, another teacher is needed in this school forthwith; even if some of the smaller boys were removed to a Primary School, which should be provided at once by the School Trustees with a view of preparing the way to sow the seed of wisdom in the heads of the rising generation, the School Trustees should always be on the alert and remember that upon them devolves the duty of providing school accomopation for the children of the city, and also the securing of an efficient staff of teachers in order to forward the pupils as rapidly as possible and in the shortest space of time. Let the Trustees put their hearts in the cause, and awaken to a proper sense of their duty, and in less than two months we shall have 500 children attending our Provincial schools in this district alone. Z.

VICTORIA, 11th Sept. 1872.

Particulas of the Burning of the N. Y. Steamship Bienville.

HAVANA, August 31.—The following is the report of Captain Maury of loss of the steamer Bienville: We left New York August 10th for Aspinwall. When in latitude 35 min. 30 deg., longitude 74 min. 15 deg. at 3:50 on the morning of the 15th, a fire was discovered among the cargo. Steam and water were put on, but the steam pumps after a few revolutions broke down. The captain ordered the hatches battened down, hoping to smother the fire. At the same time extinguishers were used between deck, and steam kept on. The fire gained, however and fearing an explotion from powder stored in the hold if he remained by the ship any longer, he ordered six boats launched, and the passengers and crew began to embark. At 7:30 Captain Maury was forced to leave the vessel, being the last one on board. One of the boats capsized after leaving the ship, and from seven to ten persons, including two women, were drowned. After sunrise a fresh breeze sprung up, and the capsized boat was righted and reached Cat Island in safety. The other boats except one, reached Eleuthera Island, a distance of 150 miles from the scene of the disaster. The missing boat has not yet been heard from, but it is supposed has been picked up by a passing vessel. A boat was seen adrift near Eleuthera Island with life preservers in it. One of the boats in trying to land at Eleuthera Island capsized and nine persons were drowned, including Mrs. Brander and her three children. At 1:30 p. m. the Bienville exploded and immediately sunk. When the fire was first discovered it was supposed to be in the forehole, where there was a large amount of powder and cargo, but it proved to be between decks. The passengers and crew lost all their baggage and saved nothing except the clothes they had on. Capt. Maury reports that the people of Nassau treated the shipwricked kindly and ministered to their wants. Vice Consul Sanders cared for the seamen. Anna Brahn one of the rescued, became insane and was left at Eleuthera because she could not be found when the party left for Nassau. The steamer Annie and schooner Danby were dispatched by the American Consul to search for the missing boat. Out of 127 persons on board 34 are unacounted for, including nine lost at Eleuthera besides six bodies recovered and buried at James point. The schooner William McGee took 34 survivors to Baltimore on the 24th. Subscriptions were started at Nassau in aid of the sufferers.
